Continuous Fixed Income Evaluated Pricing

FROM THE GOLD STANDARD IN FIXED INCOME EVALUATIONS

Streaming evaluated bond prices across multiple asset classes – a first for the industry

The transition from voice to an electronic market, the reduction in inventory levels due to regulatory concerns and the continued focus on price transparency in the fixed income market - these forces that are changing how investment is occurring in different trading protocols, from sell side to buy side.

Interactive Data now provides continuous, independent evaluated pricing into the front, middle and back office, extending the reach of fixed income end-of-day evaluations into intra-day applications. These evaluations can be used to drive:

- Pre-trade transparency
- Price discovery and idea generation
- Enhanced trading workflow to support ETF monitoring, trading and intra-day internal crossing
- Post-trade best execution analysis, compliance and Transaction Cost Analysis
- Support of intra-day operational valuation processes and collateral
- Real-time risk and credit utilization monitoring
